Nightmare

I know that I'm not what you really wanted
I'm your biggest nightmare you must have imagined it more romantic now I'm your biggest nightmare deep inside you you know I don't love you I'm your biggest nightmare
but it's you
who chose to be abused
and I'm your biggest nightmare

I can already hear your heart breaking like the shell of a raw egg but I'm still so afraid to leave you and of the scene you'll make you say you'll be proud, promise you will but I know you won't try to do what you were told but I know you can't

I know that you're waiting for my call
I'm your biggest nightmare
I know you know
I don't care at all
I'm your biggest nightmare
I'm the tears that you cry at night and your biggest nightmare

I'm the longing that you can't fight

I know that the loss of the first love hurts so did mine but no one forced you to do all this forced you to cross the line so please leave me alone you're just a toy for me I don't care `bout your feelings and songs and the world you're living in

I know that you miss me when we're parted
I'm your biggest nightmare
I know you feel hurt and broken hearted
I'm your biggest nightmare
you feel I don't love you I'm your biggest nightmare
but it's you
by your biggest nightmare
your biggest nightmare

Savior

I've been here a thousand times being depressed
with nowhere else to go
nowhere else to go with nowhere else to hide ...

But now, seeing this with you seeing this with you everything's so beautiful
and everything's alright
and where would I be now without you in my life?

*And I'm so glad there's someone out there
like you
I'm so glad there's someone out there
and after all I've been through you're my savior*

And it feels like heaven if there's a place like this finally I find comfort and I feel alive again You caught me when I was falling and finally everything's alright

*And now, seeing this with you seeing this with you
without you in my life?*

like you

Ghost of the Past (Save Me)

Save me, save me from my life before don't break me don't wake me like they all did before and once I thought
this would never end
this is all and I'm bound to my fate

Need me, don't leave me and I will cry no more see me as I am someone who trusts no more

And it's killing me, yes it's killing me it's killing me again so distract me, yes distract me until I find peace again
I'm bound to my fate and this is all

Afterwards

In green fields you walk wearing flowers in your hair but they wither as you talk dying slowly, fading away

*And when you dream you always wake
and afterwards you're always wiser
'Cause when you dream you can't see clear
Your eyes are closed and you are tired*

When summer winds blow you away and the sand beneath your feet makes you drown and now you see that the sea is really deep

Open your eyes and see there's another day Open your ears and hear that this is really weird Open your mind and soon you'll realise That things can not always work the way you want them to be

Your eyes are closed and you are tired*

Sound of the Streets

And I'm going, driving round in my car And I'm driving round in my car And I'm listening to the sound of the streets

And I'm wondering what it's like And I'm thinking of what might be Trying hard to think differently Trying not to worry at all

If I Just Believed

Black clouded sky will pass me by I dry my eyes forget the worries in my mind
from here...

I believe in what will be
and that it will be alright
If I just believed, believed in me
I know that I could fly

I can fly, I can fly, I can fly away...

I believe in what will be
If I just believed, believed in me

I can fly, I can fly, I can fly away...

Perfection

This my obsession this is what I wanna be this is what I'm feeling this is my achilles heel sometimes I find myself awake at night wondering what it's like to be sleeping, to be resting not scared to see the morning light

*Sometimes I think I'm going mad racing through the time and my ambition drives me crazy when I'm sleepless again in the night
But I want it to be perfect and everytime
I fail I just can't stand it*

This is what I'm wanting this is how I'm going down This is what I'm craving but I feel lost instead of found

This is my ambition this is what I want to be This is my perfection but it makes me feel unfree

and my ambition drives me crazy
in the night
But I want it all to be perfect
